

WHO AM I?

I am Czech-based language enthusiast who would like broaden his horizons. I am interested in new working as well as personal challenges. I have seen all sides of Czech and English. I have taught both the languages to many people. And I never stop learning new things. That's what I love and find fascinating.

EDUCATION

Palacký University, Olomouc

2003 – 2007

Bc. in English Philology and Philosophy

Here's where my interest in English world and translation starts

Palacký University, Olomouc

2007 – 2009

MA in English Philology – deep and formative ride through English phonetics, morphology, translation studies, stylistics and so on.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Freelance English tutor

2005 – present

I have been teaching courses at university, in language schools, companies and many other places. During covid I have taught a lot of online courses as well. I pride myself in being a patient teacher who loves communicating with his students.

Freelance Czech Tutor for foreigners

2009 – 2016

The most challenging part of my career. I have mostly taught American managers and their wives working long-term in the Czech Republic. This job allowed me to better understand the relationship between Czech system of language and English one.

Freelance Translator

2004 – present

I love working on texts from various fields. I have learnt so much about cars, law, IT, technology and all sorts of other topics.
