

CURRICULUM VITAE

Áron Tóbiás

Studies

- Corvinus University of Budapest, Introductory Studies, since 2003; average scholastic record: 4.83; finished great go examinations in Economics and Mathematics & Statistics, grade A

Graduation

- GCSE with class, Fazekas Mihály Secondary School, Budapest, 2003

Language skills

- Hungarian (native speaker)
- English (accredited exam, advanced level, oral and written, fluent)
- French (accredited exam, intermediate level, oral and written, fluent)
- Latin (accredited exam, intermediate level, oral and written)
- German (basic level)
- Finnish (basic level)

Computer skills

- European Computer Driving Licence (ECDL), all seven modules, 2005
- Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Visual Basic, Access, Acrobat, Linux
- practice: blind typing, Excel sheets, PowerPoint slideshows

Professional experience

- dissertation about fiscal reform organized by Corvinus University of Budapest – Heller Farkas Community College and Ministry of Finance of Hungary, 1st prize, 2004
- nomination for advisor of minister of finance, 2004
- two semesters' on-line Futures Studies course (How Can We Explore the Future? and Futures Research Methods) in English language organized by Corvinus University of Budapest and Turku College of Economic Studies (Finland), 2004–2005
- nomination for demonstrator by Department of Mathematics, Faculty of Economics, Corvinus University of Budapest, subject: Probability Theory, from Autumn 2005
- application for Erős Gyula Prize, dissertation about correlation between savings and economical development

Miscellaneous

- translation practice (English-Hungarian, Hungarian-English, French-Hungarian)

Data, accessibility

- date of birth: 18th September 1984
- address: H-1095 Budapest, Soroksári út 38-40.
- phone number: (36)-30/426-4299
- e-mail: aron_tobias@yahoo.co.uk