PROFILE

Having lived in various countries such as Brazil, Morocco, England and Spain has enabled me to adapt myself to diverse situations, gaining a great experience in problem solving and communication skills when dealing with all types of people, no matter race, language, religion or age. It has given me a great multicultural knowledge allowing me to have an open and practical vision at any job with a great capacity of understanding people's needs. I have grown up to be a creative person who looks forward to new situations bringing flexibility and hard work, always looking for professionalism in my actions, creating high standards of work.
