

Alexandra García Galván

TRANSLATOR

ABOUT

I'm a trustworthy, responsible, and thorough person, who is always ready to face challenges and to learn from professional and personal perspectives.

CONTACT

Calle Manuel Acuña #2412
Colonia Morelos
Tijuana, Baja California
México

alexandraggalvan@gmail.com
+52 (664) 354-2622

thedorkywriter.blogspot.com

EDUCATION

Centro de Posgrado y Estudios Sor Juana
Master's Degree in Writing Culture
(In progress)

Penguin Random House
Literary Translation Diploma
From April to June 2017

Autonomous University of Baja California
Bachelor's Degree in Translation
Class of 2009-2013

WORK EXPERIENCE

AS AN ENGLISH > SPANISH TRANSLATOR

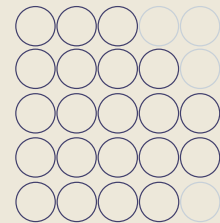

- I've worked as a local translator, proofreader, and editor here in Tijuana since 2012 as well as with online agencies. I've translated IEPs and insurances for Linguacle, from Spain, and eight books (Young Adult, Adult, and Children's Literature) with Babelcube, from the U.S.A; I'm currently translating two more.

AS AN ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE (ESL) TEACHER

- I worked for five years in three different schools. In two I followed the planning and schedules from the Municipal Public Education (SEPM) and in the last one I implemented my own program, since it was a workshop intended to kids and their parents.

PROFESSIONAL SKILLS

Communication Organization
Creativity
Commitment
Team Player

INTERESTS

Sci-Fi, drama, comedy, romantic
movies & TV Shows

Listening to podcasts and watching documentaries
about historical events

Writing workshops & discussions

Writing, book reviews
in English & Spanish.
book photography

" WRITERS MAKE NATIONAL LITERATURE WHILE TRANSLATORS MAKE UNIVERSAL LITERATURE." JOSÉ SARAMAGO