MA Hons Applied Languages and Translation (French & Spanish)

ITI Affiliate (Institute of Translating & Interpreting)

A native speaker of British English, I will take care of your translation and proofreading projects in fields such as economy, environment, politics and government, or tourism and travel.

While converting your texts from French and Spanish into flowing and easy-to-read British English, and using your requirements as a guide, I will ensure that the final contents are both accurate and suitable for your target audience.

I always remain available to address any questions or concerns while working on a project, and I will communicate the message of your source contents in the most natural way, even in cases where feedback from you would not be possible.
