Personal Statement

Dear Sirs/Madam Here is a happy, fun and good guy, a good solid worker who likes to teach English and sharing my knowledge on language to students as well as to other teachers. I am 42 years old and have been staying in Thailand for more than 8 years and I know how to adapt to the culture of this country. Im a serious teacher you can count on and I hardly have any sick days. I have more than 4 years of teaching experience and im very responsible to my job and my duties. As a private person I have 2 sons and I therefore prioritize only teaching Monday to Friday as I do not do tutoring at home. I would like to state that Im a Christian and I will expect the school to understand why I cannot follow the typical buddist traditions which is at many schools, but I respect that other people do.

Employee Requirements

Good materials present for teaching english, having a prepared program, not too many hours a week (15 is reasonable). Good salary, helping paying for Visa-fees (work-permits) as well as helping doing the paper-works for that. Beyond that I agree that we can make a long-term contract for maybe 1 year or something. My main focus is in the Ubon Ratchathani area where we live!! As for transportaion can be a challenge since we do not have a car, but as long as there is public transportation available or it is close to our home then we are fine !!
