

FRÉDÉRIC JAQUET

TRANSLATOR - FREELANCE
EN & SP → FR

ABOUT ME

I am Belgian and native French-speaker. I am a professional translator specialised in:

Energy, Social Sciences, Cooperation, Chemistry.

I was born in Brussels. I studied in Liège and I am an Industrial Engineer. When I finished my studies I moved to Spain (Zaragoza) to improve my Spanish. Once there, I took a Master's in "Renewable Energy Management and Development". In 2010, I moved to Valencia, and in 2016, I moved to Glasgow where I am currently living. The most important commitment for me is customer's satisfaction, so I always respect deadlines. My strengths are the following: Mastery of languages. competitive pricing, speed and technical knowledge.
