

Nick Iliopoulos

STUDIES – EDUCATION
1971–1976	National Technical University of Athens, Branch of Mechanical and Electrical Engineers
1977	Training in Telecommunication School in the Army
2013
	Good knowledge of English
	Very good knowledge of Microsoft Office (Word-Excell)
	Autocad
	Typing in Greek-English (blind system)
EXPERIENCE – JOBS
1977-1978	Army, in charge of maintenance of telecommunication equipment, as well as heating installations.
1978-1979	Service in the Army's Headquarters, in a translation unit, translating technical manuals of vehicles.
1979–1985	Production and maintenance manager in an enameling industry in Attica.
1985-1987	Telecommunication Organization of Greece (OTE), studies department. Study of electrical and mechanical installations of Organization's buildings.
1987-1991	Telecommunication Organization of Greece, Maintenance of the building of the headquarters of the organization.
1991–1997	OTE, Office for Mediterranean and Olympic Games Support Our team undertook the coordination and supervision of telecommunication support of big events, mainly athletic and political. Participation, under the above capacity, to EU Summit in Corfu (1994), and to several other big events.

1976–2012	Freelance Mechanical and Electrical Engineer
1997–2013	Co-founder and member of a group of construction companies.
2013	Retired E.T.A.A. (ΤΣΜΕΔΕ)
INTERESTS
	Computers Philosophy Personal improvement, learning new skills TRANSLATIONS As a hobby, I have translated over 40.000 pages of technical and philosophical content. The biggest part of these is confidential and I cannot publish it. The biggest part was: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Books - Lectures - Films (subtitling, in WORD). I would like to try a sample translation