He is a native Malay speaker, graduated from the International Islamic University, Malaysia with an LL.B (Honours) in 2002 and was admitted to the Malaysian Bar as an advocate and solicitor in 2003. He was working with various legal firms before he ceased legal practice in 2008 when he joined one of the largest banks in Malaysia. He started his translation career since he was working with legal firms. In 2011, while he was in the banking industry, he was involved in a major exercise of translation work when the regulator required all banks in Malaysia to provide Malay versions of all documents to all their retail customers. He has vast experience in translating the legal documents, marketing materials and other documents in relation to business, finance, law, human resource and IT.

He is now becoming a full time translator and he provides professional translation and editing services for English to Malay language pair and vice versa.
