

Daniel Ozol

9288 University Crescent, Burnaby, BC V5A 1B9 | +1-604-7287614 | dozol.translation@gmail.com

Technical skills

Software

- Advanced GIS skills for vector and raster spatial analysis
- Basic knowledge of Word, Excel, PowerPoint, some knowledge of coding in Java, Javascript, HTML, Trados
- Ready to learn and apply new software for translation

Teamwork Skills

- Maintain solid communication with teammates and management in order to execute task in the best way possible
- Able to produce a high-quality translation of large amounts of text
- Familiar with computer hardware and software structure

Other Abilities and Trainings

- Licensed rapid-response team electrician (obtained in Russia), able to work with open-air and enclosed electrical circuits and devices with voltage no more than 1KV

Employment Experience

Konus JSC – Moscow, Russia

2015

Rapid Response Team Electrician

- Worked as a part of electrical controlling device development company
- Organized maintenance and troubleshooting in a variety electrical systems and device

Zip Marketing Inc. – New Westminster, Canada

2017

Sales Representative

- Organized a communications with customers in local stores in order to promote various products
- Established a set of connections with management and personnel for a better marketing results

PSD Nepal – Kathmandu, Nepal

February 2019 - Present

Data Analyst

- Performed a multivariable data analysis as a part of a PSD Plastic Recycling project in Langtang national park
- Participated in project planning and development
- Performed data analysis as a part of PSD Nutritional Project
- Was a part of the project workgroup chosen for presentation at The Royal Geographical Society Annual International Conference.

Daniel Ozol

Personal Qualities

- Disciplined and punctual while performing work and research
- Specifically interested in working in diverse multilingual collectives in future
- Languages learnt: Spanish (Fluent), English (Advanced), and Russian (Native)
- Team leadership and projects managing with the aim of their successful execution
- Wide knowledge in a variety of sciences – Communication, Computer Science, Social, Urban, and Physical Geography, Geology, Political Science
- Experienced in a diverse professional fields such as Marketing, Electronics, IT

Volunteering Experience

Fraser International College – Orientation Manager

2017

- As a part of a working group conducted an interview, recruitment, and training of student orientation leaders
- Performed a planning (including the scheduling, budget projection, and instructions for personnel and participants) for an events with range of participants from 20 to 800 people,
- Stated a number of external contacts with different facilities of Simon Fraser University and private companies
- Performed a coordination of a personnel and problem solving during the Orientation

Education

Simon Fraser University - Geography, Bachelor of Arts

- Social Geography Concentration
- Geographic Information Systems Certificate
  - LING 110 - Linguistics

Fraser International College – Environmental Specialty

Fraser International College – Communication Specialty