

THE OPPORTUNITIES SEEKER

Issue: Curriculum Vitae

Surakarta, 24 February 1998

Qais Indi Purnama

“Life is about gaining and sharing goodness simultaneously.”

Qais Indi Purnama is a native Javanese and Indonesian who enthusiasts to learn English. Currently, he tries to set his best route to be an English literature lecture to deepen and share his knowledge of English to other English-enthusiast people. Helping individuals to reach their goals is the main reason why Qais is preparing himself to be one of the English literature lectures who would help pupils to pave their future and career.

Qais also interests to have opportunities in working as a well-versed English to Indonesian translator to implement his skills obtained during his college. Working as a translator is also his dream to learn and understand new things.

Besides of these goals, he also opens his door and windows of opportunities to work in other creative and interesting fields. During his unemployment, Qais attempts to comprehend psychological matters during his leisure.

“Having the chance to extend my education is a fluke.” - Qais

Conducting studies to enhance his knowledge and comprehension of English has been the main interest of Qais as his way to pave his further career. He selected English as the field of study he wants to master.

One of Qais' steps to pave his career was marked when he decided to apply as an English Diploma Program pupil at Universitas Sebelas Maret in 2015. Qais completed his Diploma degree in 2018 and gained tons of translation courses. Before officially graduated from Universitas Sebelas Maret, Qais already set his next step ahead.

He applied as an English Department pupil at Universitas Airlangga in 2018 to extend his diploma degree. The passion to widen his knowledge of English literature became the main reason to commit extended study. His journey in comprehending English literature commenced in August 2018. Qais completed his Sarjana Humaniora on September 2020. This also marks that Qais is a fresh graduate who is eager to pursue new experience, lesson, and have a professional career.

“Few experiences are better than none.” - Qais

The courses obtained during his college inspires Qais to implement his skills and knowledge in two main fields: Translation and Teaching.

Working as an English to Indonesian translator has become Qais' main goal after obtaining numerous courses related to the translation field. The implementation of his translation skills was tested and developed when he undertook his diploma program's internship. The internship was undertaken from January 2018 to February 2018. During his internship, Qais, with the help of his teams, recreated five tourism brochure presented both in English and Indonesian and translated several articles from the website of Dinas Pariwisata dan Kebudayaan Kabupaten Banjarnegara.

Aside from his experience in translation, Qais, who was self-employed, provided a private tutor from April 2019 to December 2019 for elementary students. He managed to teach most of the courses from grade 3 to grade 4 elementary school by stressing on the English course as the main focus. His teaching experience inspires him to share his ability with others.

“Some of the skills I develop hours of hours.” - Qais

Qais prominent skills are to translate texts from English into Indonesian and vice versa as well as to provide subtitling for videos from English into Indonesian and vice versa. He is also able to teach English as a second language for elementary students to high school students.

Besides those two English-based skills, Qais also expand his ability in other fields. He is capable to use Adobe Premiere Pro to make short product videos. He is also competent to use CorelDRAW and Adobe Photoshop as his way to express his passion to create digital designs.

“Social media is merely a media.” - Qais

Having and using various social media is not the main concern of Qais. He actively uses three social media only: LinkedIn, Instagram, and Google Mail. His LinkedIn account can be found by typing his full name in the search column. Qais provides a glimpse of his self-expression in his Instagram account under the username of @qicetan. To have further communication with Qais, you may send an e-mail to qaisip@gmail.com.