About me

I am currently fluent in Latvian, German and English. I was born and raised in Latvia where I developed my fluency in Latvian. I spent a total of 9 years studying in Northern Italy and Austria where German was the primary focus of my studies.

My background includes graduating with honors from Landesberufsschule Christian Josef Tschuggmall in Italy. I also graduated from the Personal Fitness Academy in Vienna, Austria excelling in a knowledge of human anatomy and fitness techniques that were taught to clients in German and in English.

I have previously translated for private individuals with a speciality in business analytics. I have also been an interpreter for private individuals. Throughout my career as a translator, I have attained a reputation as a dependable, hard-working, enthusiastic individual who always delivers on time and pays attention to every minute detail.
