ABOUT ME

I was born and raised in Rennes, France. I've been living in Los Angeles for 4 years and in London before that. My passion for writing, history and languages, along with the cultural immersion I had the chance to get, have made me the great and reliable translator I am today.

I am married to an American woman so I speak English very well and as my main language.

I have deep knowledge of the French language and can translate English to French with context and creativity so it sounds perfectly native to French people.

My clients can always count on me to deliver and their is my top priority.
