About me: I was born in Dubrovnik, Croatia. After finishing high school (Klasična gimnazija Ruđera Boškovića) I enrolled at the University of Zadar in two study programmes (Russian language and literature and Latin language and Roman literature). While studying I visited many foreign countries and met many people from different cultures who spoke different languages. In 2017 I attended World Festival of Youth and Students (which was then held in Sochi, Russia) and spent there around 10 days with other three of my student colleagues. In 2019, at my final semester I went on an Erasmus exchange in Tallinn, Estonia and spent there almost five months (one semester) before returning back to Croatia. I also visited Moscow two times, and St. Petersburg once. I loved meeting people from different countries and talking to them, learning more about their language and culture. Approximately one year ago I completed Master's degree in Russian language and literature (January 2020) and I also have a Bachelor's degree in Latin language and Roman literature since 2017. Currently I am employed as an assistant for a child with special needs at kindergarten Ciciban in Dubrovnik (since March 2020) and I also work as a court interpreter for Russian.
