Profile

My name is Jana Rudolph, I am a foreign language correspondent for English and Spanish certified by the state of Germany and have been working as a freelance translator for English, Spanish, Swedish and Danish into German since March 2017. In 2020, I obtained my Bachelor's degree in Scandinavian Studies and Spanish Philology, focusing on translation theory in my thesis.

Experience

Freelance translator — March 2017-present

As a translator, I have worked with many companies and private clients, translating different types of texts such as brochures, user manuals, flyers, websites and presentations.

Student Assistant — April-July 2019

As a Student Assistant for the Galician department, I helped organize events for Galician students and translating Galician texts for the university website.

Education

Christian-Albrechts-Universität zu Kiel — 2015-present

Inlingua Sprachcenter Kiel — Training for foreign language correspondent English/Spanish, 2013-2015

Chamber of Commerce and Industry Kiel — exam for foreign language correspondent, 2015

Gymnasium Schloss Plön — Abitur, 2013
