WORK EXPERIENCE

Creative and adaptable professional with a background as a financial adviser, now charting my own course in the dynamic world of finance. Leveraging my creativity and quick adaptability, I am committed to delivering innovative financial solutions and driving positive change. As a freelancer, I have honed my skills in diverse projects, demonstrating a rapid learning curve and the ability to thrive in varied environments. With a strong passion for creativity and an entrepreneurial mindset, I strive to redefine the boundaries of the Translate industry and create meaningful impact.

As a freelancer, I am currently engaged in an exciting international real estate project that involves multiple languages and diverse cultural aspects. While I am still developing my expertise in this field, I have a strong commitment to continuous learning. I actively educate myself in areas such as Human Nature, negotiation, sales, and finance to gain a deeper understanding of people and their needs. By combining my passion for real estate with ongoing self-improvement, I strive to contribute effectively to the success of my international real estate project.

Passionate football coach and responsible older brother dedicated to fostering growth and development in others. Through coaching underprivileged youth, I instilled teamwork, discipline, and physical fitness, while also mentoring and building up my younger siblings. Committed to personal growth, I engage in regular exercise, self-learning, and reflection. As an enthusiastic traveler, I embrace diverse cultures and landscapes, cultivating a well-rounded perspective. These experiences shape my approach to life and work, fostering creativity, meaningful connections, and a strong sense of responsibility.
