PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

---

With linguistic and technical expertise, I possess significant experience in the field of translation. I am proficient in several languages, including English, Russian, Azerbaijani, and Turkish. Throughout my professional career, I have accumulated 7 years of experience in swiftly and accurately translating various types of content, encompassing administrative, technical, marketing, and literary documents. I have successfully translated complex documents such as academic articles, research reports, patent applications, legal papers, and industrial documents, ensuring precision and fidelity. I also have all the necessary professional voice-over equipment, so I can voice your texts in a quality way.
