

Naw Day

rekhalim@gmail.com

Work Experience

Currently working for a few agencies: Phoenix Language Services, (2013 present). Certified Language Services 2013 and present , Propio Language services 2023 present, Language services Association (2013 and present)

Skills

Fluent in English, Burmese and Karen.

o Working experience background

o As primary teacher since 2005 to 2009(in Myanmar), As computer teacher (2009 to 2012 in Malaysia Karen Organization) and currently helping Karen community as a volunteer interpreter from 2012 and present.

Medical interpreter, Legal interpreter

June 2013 and present

Job performance

Medical Interpreter

Especially providing services to doctor office communication between doctors and patients, prenatal care, diabetic teaching, speech therapy, occupation therapy, mental health assessments, medical wavier interview, IEP meeting, teacher parent conference, organ transplant consultant, home care visit, child protective service.

Taking calls from medical facilities, community service such as DHS office, social services, clinic, hospital.

Specialize with legal services interpretation for client between Jude and client, lawyer and their clients, preparation hearing, mental health institute, providing face to face interpretation, documentation translation, food stamp interview, refugee resettlement, immigration document translation, Medicaid interview, many services that need interpretation across the country. I have confidence that I can provide the best service in need for the company.

Education background

Attending: Center Baptist Theology

B.SC (zoology)

Sincerely

Naw Day