ABOUT ME

I am a multi-talented student with a diverse skill set that includes writing, photography, written communication and speaking.

As a blogger, I explored various topics ranging from lifestyle and religious beliefs;

As a Christian, I developed my writing skills and learned how to create engaging content that resonates with readers. I also gained an understanding of search engine optimization (SEO) and how to incorporate it into my writing to improve visibility and engagement.

My passion for photography led me to my church's media team where I explored this field further. I am currently developing my skills as a photographer and I have developed a keen eye for detail, composition, and aesthetics.

Written communication is another area where I have developed my skills in writing blog posts, social media posts and other written materials.

I am honing my skills in communication, problem-solving, and conflict resolution: this I learned from trial advocacy and alternative dispute resolution as a law student.

Overall, my diverse background and experience have helped me develop a unique set of skills that I bring to any project. I am a creative problem-solver, an effective communicator, and a customer-focused professional who is always eager to take on new challenges.
