EXPERIENCE

Private Tutoring

2017 - Present

I provide private tutoring sessions in English and in Italian to students of various age and proficiency levels, with a focus on the single student's learning needs and goals.

Special Education teacher

September 2018 - March 2019

I worked in various kindergartens and elementary schools as a Special Education teacher, focusing on the children's unique needs and developing customized educational plans accordingly.

Niguarda Hospital, Milan — psychology internship

October 2017 - April 2018

Internship in the Niguarda hospital maternity ward, focused on screening and diagnose women at risk of developing postpartum depression

CPS (Centro Studi e Psicoterapia), Milan — psychology internship

October 2017 - April 2018

Internship in a psychotherapy center that was also part of a non-profit association. I participated in a Prevention Project in high schools, focused on gambling and drug addictions.

Social Service, Seregno — psychology internship

October 2017 - April 2018

I worked in a Social Service that specifically took care of minors and distressed families in the Seregno area.

Adult Attachment Interview (AAI) — psychology internship

March 2014 - May 2014

In these classes, we listened and transcribed audio tapes of patients during their sessions, and learned to recognize different attachment patterns based on the transcriptions.
