

Kent Andersson
1216 E Jefferson St., Apt. 3
Bloomington, IL 61701
USA

Tel: +1-309-828 8544
Mobile: +46-70-6918692
E-mail: kent.andersson.is@home.se

EMPLOYMENT

Lund University, Lund, Sweden Research Assistant/lab manager (part time/hourly + full time employment)	1999-2006
Ottenby Bird Observatory, Ottenby, Sweden Professional bird bander (seasonal employment)	1997-2002
Stora Hylte AB, Hyltebruk, Sweden Fire Technician (summer employment)	1994-1998

EDUCATION

Lund University, Lund, Sweden M.Sc. in Biology with honors Thesis: "Conflicts and trade-offs during incubation: manipulation of food abundance and breeding opportunities in the European starling (Sturnus vulgaris)"	2003
Kattegatgymnasiet, Halmstad, Sweden High school diploma in Chemical Engineering	1993

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

As a research assistant/lab manager I have written and translated numerous documents such as instruction manuals, safety information, laboratory protocols, etc., both from English to Swedish and vice versa.

I have led many guided tours in both English and Swedish while employed at Ottenby Bird Observatory and as a board member of Lund's field biological association.

PUBLICATIONS

Pettersson, L. B., Andersson, K. & Nilsson K. 2001. The diel activity of crucian carp, Carassius carassius, in relation to chemical cues from predators. Environmental Biology of Fishes 61: 341-345, 2001.

Andersson, K. Könsbestämning av fågelspindlar [Sexing tarantulas]. Vivipara 7: 6-7, 1998.

ADDITIONAL MERITS

Referee for Environmental Biology of Fishes

Board member of Lund's field biological association

- Chair 2002-2006
 - Secretary 2001-2002
-

LANGUAGES

Swedish – native language

English – speak fluently and read/write with high proficiency

German –basic knowledge.
