Details, main fields of expertise

As an attorney my main fields of expertise are employment law, real estate law, corporate law, consumer protection law, IP law, education law and other private law cases. I am usually involved in lawsuits and litigations and I consider my work really successful. I negotiate and draft contracts, conduct legal research and provide quality legal advice to clients from different countries.

Our law firm is a member of Association of Independent European Lawyers (www.aiel.com) since 2012.

I am a member of the Csongrád County Arbitration Board since 2012. The Arbitration Board
