

FRANCESCA FELICI

Literary and technical translator

I had been living in Brazil for 27 years, working at the Italian Embassy first and becoming an independent professional in 2007 by translating from Brazilian Portuguese and English into Italian. My deep knowledge of the Brazilian language and culture equips me to translate technical texts from Italian to Brazilian Portuguese.

I teach Italian for foreigners, and I have a great experience in teaching to Brazilian students since I was a teacher in several language schools in Brasilia and Rio de Janeiro, including the Italian Cultural Institute.

International experience has fostered my ability to work in teams and adapt easily to multicultural settings.
