EX-MEMBER AND EX-ADJUNCT EDITOR-IN-CHIEF TO ATENTIE!INFO 01.05.2006 - 18.10.2007

Company: The Romanian Association for Social Informing and Involvement

Working city: Bucuresti

Salary: 0

Department: mass media/journalism/graphics/dtp

Company activity field : The sole purpose of this purely voluntary and non-profit e-media Romanian project ('Atentie!Info', i.e.) is that of elevating the quality of life for the (average, i.e.) Romanian citizen; citizen which is always put face-to-face with life's hardships with Romanian specificity. In other words, this type of elevation is translatable only via bringing forward original and highly detailed(!) information to the reader. Unfortunately, I have seen myself needed to renounce my position as adjunct editor-in-chief because of the lack of willingness for better communication on my former team's behalf; team which I coordinated for a few months. And, as of October 2007, their total lack of involvement within the project convinced me that I should rethink my priorities.

Responsibilities:

I wrote statistics and articles, and took interviews to some of the the Romanian VIPs, at least within the earlier mentioned project. As for the articles themselves, those are grouped by various categories: social, judicial, educational and cultural (the - Romanian, i.e. - theaters and museums issue, as well as that of the publishing houses with Humanist profile), professional Web journalism and so on.

Recommendation:

Mrs. Mariana Arseni, lady president of ARIIS and current Editor-in-Chief of 'Atentie!Info'

Achievements:

It had been allocated to me a sub-section which dealt with the earlier mentioned issues, but it end-up as part of the 'Life in Romania' ('Viata in Romania', Ro.) section. As for the team itself, it consisted in 6 contributors.

PC Skills:

- HTML / CSS (28 months) -- Usually, I build in HTML, but at an intermediate level. As for CSS, I still experiment.

 - Website (26 months).
 - Java Script (16 months) -- I still experiment with JavaScript codes such as: pop-under, E-mail and text forms, buttons and background color shifting.
 - 'MS Office' (10 years) -- Recently, I opted for the 'OpenOffice' Package (15 months exp).

Other skills or details that are relevant to your CV

- Magazines (6 - 24 months) -- With the on-line type of magazines, I have a rich experience, given being the fact that I have written and edited articles and columns for the IT&C segment up to the: social, macro-economics, sanitary - medical and culture ones.

All of these can be found within the pages of the following on-line Romanian magazines: 'Atentie!Info', '10%' (e-zine of the ONPHR Federation), 'Conta', 'iTurism', 'CD Forum', 'Media Express' and last, but not least, within those of 'Stiletto'.

interview

1. Which was your biggest professional achievement?

A concrete achievement, in numbers, I do not have, but I equally consider it as achievement, the accumulation of various journalistic know-how during the past 3 years, since I write for various Romanian on-line magazines with such different profiles.

2. Which was your biggest setback?

My sole professional failure thus far had been that of 'Stiletto', where I had a personality conflict with my editor-in-chief. Yet, I believe that sufficient time had passed and that I have optimally matured myself to start over.

3. Where do you see yourself 5 years from now?

Within the next 5 years, I believe that I am to advance to the position of Editor-in-Chief at some Romanian magazine with sanitary - medical theme.

4. What's your biggest dream? Describe your ideal career

My career ideal is that of getting acknowledged on national prose and lyric levels, as well as to own a mass-media company of written or televised Press.

5. What job do you consider to suit you best?

I believe that the Documentary Editor suits me best.

6. Describe your ideal company.

In a mass-media company I would very much like to work, namely in one of written Press, but I am also fond of the televised one.

7. Which is the department you would like to work in (you can make only one choice)?

Explain why do you consider that you are right for the job and why you made that choice!

I would be best suited as an Editor-in-Chief within the Press Department of any of the e-magazines with sanitary - medical theme because it represents me, especially due to my difficile health condition.

8. Give a detailed description of your personality (hobbies, hopes, the things that motivate you, your lifestyle and workstyle, etc).

A) Attitude & Temperament :

- a) Empathetic -- I must exhibit a strong empathic feeling towards my colleagues, as it is to be expected from any team leader.
- b) Adaptable -- I am highly adaptable. Yet, I have some very high standards.
- c) Patient -- I can truly say about myself that I am very self-disciplined, especially when it comes to relate with members of my team.
- d) Communicative -- Although I do much better in writing, I made notable progress as speech is concerned, as well.

B) Hobbies :

- a) Editing of columns from the earlier mentioned areas; especially from the worldwide Sci-Fi culture (see: 'Pro-Scris', Ro. - 'OutCast', En. - under the alias of Virgona Vilius).
- b) Translating and adapting featured and animated movies alike that are very close to my heart, as well as quality science documentaries.
- c) Editing of comic - books of foreign origin. At the moment, I have my project in course of developing; it is an old saga.

C) Driving Force : The Unknown and the Difficult.

D) Life Style : My biorhythm is a pretty balanced one, I might say. For instance, I work from 10:30 AM till 10:30 - 11:30 PM. In rest, as extra-professional activities, I already stated my hobbies because I cannot do more.

E) Deep Aspiration(-s) : That of becoming a prolific writer and lyricist, aside my profile as an e-journalist.
