I am working as an official freelance translator in my spare time at my hometown Konya. I do translations mainly in Turkish, English and Swedish, but I also do translations from the other Scandinavian counties, namely Norwegian and Danish in to Turkish. I have specialized in Technical Translation since I have professional help at home. Besides this I am an official translator signed at Turkish Ministry of Justice since 2007. This position has made me develop and fine my skills regarding translations about Law in Swedish-English-Turkish. I have also done literary translations regarding my master thesis. To be a literary translator is something I consider to be my main objective.

What do I do in my spare time?

- 📖 I am interested in photographing, I don't see my self as a professional yet, but I hope I will one day. I have some of my photos published in Pentaxuser.co.uk/user/dilek-10991
- 📖 I enjoy reading a lot; it is a passion of my life, therefore the choice of philology in my education. I am a continuous follower of English, American, Turkish and Swedish literature.
- 📖 Last but not the least; I have three wonderful daughters at the ages of fourteen, nine and five years, to enjoy at my spare time.
